“Haute Parfum” for women by Guido Maria Kretschmer

As an international designer, Guido Maria Kretschmer has been creating men's and women's fashion for many years – fashion which is closely oriented towards the people who wear it. But a look is only really perfect when it is complemented by a fragrance which highlights the personality. So what could be more appropriate than creating an own fragrance collection for men and women? Just like with his fashion collection, the two perfumes are characterised by what defines Guido's personality: stylish elegance, attention to detail and an aura of international flair.
