EXPERT TIPS

"If you work in a fast-paced environment, it is vital to provide your body with a variety of nutrients, as well as sufficient breaks for physical and mental rest.

A powerful combination of balanced nutrition, physical exercise and a healthy lifestyle leads you straight to the goal."

Dr. Sven Werchan, Nutrition Expert

LIFESTYLE

Get some rest. Start today by going to bed 30 minutes earlier than usual.

NUTRITION

Fish such as salmon, mackerel or herring, is rich in essential Omega-3 fatty acids, which are essential for the function of the brain. Consume at least two portions a week, or integrate the LR LIFETAKE Super Omega 3 into your daily diet.

EXERCISE

Raise and lower your shoulders several times a day (ten times each).

ACTIVITY AND happiness

Pro Activity

MAXIMUM MOBILITY
IN EVERY PHASE OF LIFE

Activity is vital for your happiness. As long as you meet the challenges of everyday life in the best possible way, you can truly feel good about yourself. In order for you to follow the intensely active lifestyle that suits you, LR LIFETAKT Pro Activity offers your body the necessary support to maintain and promote its mobility, with the Aloe Vera Drinking Gel Freedom¹ and the Active Freedom Capsules^{2,3}.

EXPERT TIPS

"In order to remain active and maintain maximum mobility, the necessary nutrients are vital to our body. The combination of a balanced diet, a healthy lifestyle and physical exercise is essential, so that we can always have energy in our everyday life."
Dr. Sven Werchan, Nutrition Expert

LIFESTYLE

Be active together. Arrange activities with your friends. Go bowling, hiking or cycling. Enjoy life to the fullest.

NUTRITION

In the evening, consume vegetables and low-fat meat (chicken, turkey) or fish instead. This helps regulate your body weight and encourages a good night's sleep.

EXERCISE

Bend your upper torso back and forth as far you can and rest a few moments in that position. Then straighten out slowly. Repeat two or three times a day.
